ADVENT AS IT SHOULD BE

When the cities glow and the air smells of cinnamon and punch

There is one time of year when Central Europe is at its most beautiful. When the wooden huts stand on the old squares, children's choirs sing in front of the cathedrals and you warm your hands on a cup of mulled wine, it's Advent. Our five trips take you right there – relaxed, by train.

Eight reasons to travel with us

- Start any day. Choose your arrival day freely between 14 November and 19 December – no fixed departure dates like a classic tour.
- Guaranteed from 2 guests. No minimum group size, no risk of cancellation. Your trip takes place even if there are only two of you.
- Tour leader from 20 guests, free. Travelling as a family, club or company of 20 or more? Your own tour leader in your language joins you all week, at the same price.
- Train, not coach. No traffic jams, no early suitcase rounds, no sitting in row 14. You glide from old town to old town and watch the winter landscape pass by.
- Stay right in the centre. Our hotels are central, the markets usually a few minutes' walk away. One more punch in the evening? No problem.
- Everything important already paid. Main entrance, market tour, city walk including the tip, transfers and transport day tickets are included. You only open your wallet for mulled wine and presents.
- Advent in five countries. Vienna, Prague, Budapest, Salzburg, Dresden, Nuremberg, Lucerne: Europe's most famous Christmas markets, linked in a clever order.
- Planned by Viennese locals. Prime Tours knows Central Europe first-hand. Our team in Vienna organises every trip and is there for you throughout your stay.

LOOK FORWARD TO

Advent in Vienna, Wachau, Salzburg, Innsbruck and Munich

Picture this: Vienna's Rathausplatz bathed in warm light, the trees in the park hung with glowing hearts, and somewhere a brass band playing Silent Night. For three days the imperial city is yours, with Schönbrunn Palace, winding Biedermeier lanes and the craft market on Spittelberg.

Then things slow down. In the Wachau your gaze drifts across the Danube and the wintry vineyards to the golden-yellow Melk Abbey. On to Salzburg, where Mozart was born and the Christkindlmarkt stands right in front of the cathedral, and to Innsbruck, where the snowy peaks reach all the way down to the old town. Munich bids you farewell with its big market on Marienplatz.

Highlights

- ✓ Three nights in Vienna, with Schönbrunn Palace and a guided market stroll
- ✓ A winter day in the Wachau with Melk Abbey and Dürnstein
- ✓ Salzburg's Christkindlmarkt between the cathedral and the Residenz
- ✓ Innsbruck's old town with the Golden Roof against the mountains
- ✓ Grand finale on Munich's Marienplatz

Not included

- Flights
- Lunch and dinner
- Drinks and personal expenses
- Optional concerts, dinners and excursions

Optional, prices on request

- Advent concert in a historic church or an evening at a Heuriger wine tavern
- Salzburg Advent singing or a trip to the Silent Night Chapel in Oberndorf

Day by day

Day 1
VIENNA

Servus Vienna

Pick-up at the airport and transfer to your hotel. In the evening, your first stroll to the Christmas market in front of City Hall, where the scent of roasted almonds hangs in the air.

Day 2
VIENNA

Imperial Vienna

In the morning a Viennese guide shows you the Inner City on a tip-based tour, from St. Stephen's Cathedral along the Graben to the Hofburg. In the afternoon you visit Schönbrunn Palace, the Habsburgs' summer residence. In the evening a local takes you across Spittelberg and Am Hof, with punch and stories from old Vienna.

Day 3
VIENNA

Winter in the Wachau

By train to Melk and a visit to the baroque abbey high above the Danube. By regional bus through the quiet vineyards to Dürnstein with its blue church tower and on to Krems, then back to Vienna by train.

Day 4
SALZBURG

To Salzburg

In two and a half hours the train brings you to Mozart's city. A tip-based tour leads along Getreidegasse with its wrought-iron guild signs to the cathedral. You spend the evening at the Christkindlmarkt, one of the oldest in Austria.

Day 5
SALZBURG

Salzburg from above

The fortress funicular, included in your ticket, takes you up to Hohensalzburg Fortress, with the city and its domes at your feet. Later a guide tells you about Salzburg's Advent traditions, and there is time for the market in the Residenz courtyard.

Day 6
INNSBRUCK

Innsbruck, city in the mountains

The train runs through the Inn Valley to Innsbruck. You explore the old town with the Golden Roof, visit the Hofburg and stroll across the markets beneath the Nordkette in the evening.

Day 7
MUNICH

Servus Munich

On to Munich. A tip-based tour takes you through the old town and into the magnificent Residenz of the Bavarian kings. In the evening you get to know the markets around Marienplatz, with mulled wine and gingerbread.

Day 8
MUNICH

Goodbye

Transfer to Munich Airport and home, with plenty of memories in your luggage.

Included

- 7 nights in central hotels with breakfast (3★ or 4★)
- All train journeys between the cities, 2nd class, seats reserved

Guaranteed from 2 guests

Best of the Alps · Munich · Salzburg · Innsbruck · Lucerne

LOOK FORWARD TO

Advent in Munich, Salzburg, Innsbruck and Lucerne

This trip is for everyone who wants to see snow in Advent. It starts in Munich, where the Christkindlmarkt around the neo-Gothic City Hall has been a tradition for centuries, and leads via Mozart's city of Salzburg to Innsbruck, where the Nordkette peaks rise right behind the colourful houses of the old town.

Then comes the day you will talk about for a long time: the train crosses the Arlberg, runs through the Rhine Valley and along Lake Walen all the way to Lucerne. There the lights of the old town are reflected in Lake Lucerne, and a little Christmas train takes you to the prettiest corners of the city.

Highlights

- ✓ Panoramic ride over the Arlberg to Lake Lucerne
- ✓ Two nights in Lucerne with a ride on the Christmas Train
- ✓ Hohensalzburg Fortress and the market in front of the cathedral
- ✓ Residenz and Christkindlmarkt in Munich
- ✓ Easy journey home by train straight to Zurich Airport

Not included

- Flights
- Lunch and dinner
- Drinks and personal expenses
- Optional concerts, dinners and excursions

Optional, prices on request

- Day trip to Neuschwanstein Castle
- Salzburg Advent singing or a trip to Hallstatt
- Swarovski Crystal Worlds in Wattens
- Mount Pilatus or Rigi, fondue evening by the lake

Day by day

Day 1 · MUNICH

Grüß Gott in Munich

Pick-up at the airport and transfer to your hotel. In the evening you dive into the Christkindlmarkt on Marienplatz, beneath the towers of City Hall.

Day 2 · MUNICH

Royal Munich

On a tip-based tour a guide leads you through the old town with the Frauenkirche and the Viktualienmarkt. Afterwards you visit the Residenz, the city palace of the Wittelsbachs. In the evening a local takes you to the finest stalls in the city centre.

Day 3 · SALZBURG

To Salzburg

In an hour and a half you are in Salzburg. A tip-based tour of the old town shows you Mozart's birthplace and Getreidegasse; in the evening the Christkindlmarkt at the cathedral awaits.

Day 4 · SALZBURG

Salzburg Advent

In the morning the fortress funicular takes you up to Hohensalzburg Fortress. Then a guide tells you about the customs of the region. In the afternoon the Advent market in the park of Hellbrunn Palace is well worth a detour.

Day 5 · INNSBRUCK

Innsbruck

The train brings you through the Inn Valley to Innsbruck. A walk through the old town with the Golden Roof, a visit to the Hofburg and, in the evening, a Christmas stroll with a view of the illuminated mountains.

Day 6 · LUCERNE

Over the Arlberg to Lucerne

Today the journey is the destination. The train climbs over the Arlberg, follows the Rhine and Lake Walen and reaches Lucerne via Zurich. In the evening you cross the wooden Chapel Bridge, the city's landmark.

Day 7 · LUCERNE

Lucerne by the lake

A tip-based tour leads through the old town with its painted façades. You visit the Bourbaki Panorama, a giant circular painting, and in the evening the little Christmas Train takes you through the festive city.

Day 8 · LUCERNE

Goodbye

By train in one hour directly to Zurich Airport.

Included

GERMANY'S MOST FAMOUS MARKETS

Best of Germany

Five markets you know from every coffee-table book, in a single week.

from €2,490 per person | 8 days · 7 nights

Munich · Nuremberg · Rothenburg · Dresden · Prague | Guaranteed from 2 guests

Best of Germany · Munich · Nuremberg · Rothenburg · Dresden · Prague

LOOK FORWARD TO

Advent in Munich, Nuremberg, Rothenburg, Dresden and Prague

When people think of German Christmas markets, they think of these names: the Christkindlesmarkt in Nuremberg with its red-and-white canopies, the Reiterlesmarkt in medieval Rothenburg and Dresden's Striezelmarkt, held since 1434 and named after the Striezel, the old word for Christmas stollen.

This trip connects them all. Between half-timbered houses, the scent of gingerbread and wooden pyramids from the Ore Mountains, you experience Christmas the way it looks in picture books. To finish, the train runs along the Elbe through Saxon Switzerland to Prague.

Highlights

- ✓ Christkindlesmarkt on Nuremberg's Hauptmarkt
- ✓ A day in the half-timbered town of Rothenburg ob der Tauber
- ✓ Dresden's Striezelmarkt with stollen and mulled wine
- ✓ Train ride through the Elbe Valley to Prague
- ✓ Munich's Residenz and Marienplatz to start

Not included

- Flights
- Lunch and dinner
- Drinks and personal expenses
- Optional concerts, dinners and excursions

Optional, prices on request

- Day trip to Neuschwanstein Castle
- Excursion to the World Heritage town of Bamberg
- Meissen porcelain manufactory or the Bastei in Saxon Switzerland
- Bohemian dinner or an Advent concert

Arrival in Munich

Pick-up at the airport and transfer to your hotel. First evening at the Christkindlmarkt on Marienplatz.

Day 2 · MUNICH

Munich

Tip-based tour through the old town and a visit to the Residenz. In the evening a guide shows you the city's finest markets.

Day 3 · NUREMBERG

Nuremberg

In just over an hour the ICE brings you to Nuremberg. A tip-based tour leads up to the Imperial Castle; in the evening the Christkindlesmarkt glows on the Hauptmarkt, with bratwurst in a bun and real Lebkuchen.

Day 4 · NUREMBERG

Rothenburg ob der Tauber

By regional train, changing in Steinach, to Rothenburg, where time seems to have stood still since the Middle Ages. You visit the German Christmas Museum and the Reiterlesmarkt between half-timbered houses and the town wall. Back to Nuremberg in the evening.

Day 5 · DRESDEN

Dresden

Train to Dresden. In the afternoon you stroll between the Frauenkirche, the Semperoper and the Zwinger; in the evening the gates open to the Striezelmarkt with the world's largest Ore Mountains step pyramid.

Day 6 · DRESDEN

Dresden, Florence on the Elbe

Visit to the Zwinger and its collections. Then an Advent tour with Dresden Christstollen and mulled wine, and time for the smaller markets of the old town.

Day 7 · PRAGUE

Through the Elbe Valley to Prague

The train follows the Elbe through the Elbe Sandstone Mountains to Prague. A tip-based tour leads across Charles Bridge to Old Town Square, where the market glows beneath the towers of the Týn Church.

Day 8 · PRAGUE

Prague Castle and home

In the morning you visit Prague Castle high above the Vltava. Then transfer to the airport.

Included

Guaranteed from 2 guests

Royal Europe · Prague · Vienna · Bratislava · Budapest

LOOK FORWARD TO

Advent in Prague, Vienna, Bratislava and Budapest

For centuries these four cities shared one crown, and yet each celebrates Advent in its own way. Prague with its market beneath the Gothic towers of the Týn Church, Vienna with punch and waltz music, Bratislava small and warm-hearted at the foot of its castle, Budapest with steaming chimney cake and a view of the magnificent Parliament on the Danube.

The train rides are short, the longest takes about four hours. So every day leaves plenty of time to marvel, taste and enjoy.

Highlights

- ✓ Prague Castle and the market on Old Town Square
- ✓ Schönbrunn Palace and a market stroll through old Vienna
- ✓ One night in Bratislava with a castle visit
- ✓ Christmas market in Budapest with Hungarian specialities
- ✓ Short train legs, no early departures

Not included
